

Please consider extending the time to decide on media ownership. I don't think the public has a chance to become informed or express their views.